Missing Lights

Several city parks turn dark and dangerous

Non-functional traffic signals create chaos

Mysuru, Sept. 5 (RK, PM & BCT)- With Dasara rapidly approaching, Mysuru is already experiencing an influx of tourists, which is straining the city's already congested roads and intersections. As visitor numbers surge, the pressure on these routes is set to intensify, further aggravating traffic conditions.

Adding to the chaos, numerous traffic signals at key junctions and cross roads have been malfunctioning for days, plunging the city into a state of traffic mayhem particularly on the busy stretches and arterial roads, especially during peak hour traffic. This persistent issue has left drivers navigating through a maze of confusion and delays.

Compounding the problem, defunct lights in public parks have left residents uneasy about their safety after dark. Despite repeated concerns, the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) has failed to replace these malfunctioning bulbs, rendering many neighbourhoods unsafe for evening strolls and leaving locals feeling vulnerable.

Parks in the dark

For instance, parks within the Lakshmipuram Police Station limits in the heart of the city — such as Ballal Circle Park, New Kantharaj Urs Road Park near Neramballi Kalyana Mantapa, Krishnamurthypuram Fourth Cross Park and Freedom Fighters' Park (Subbarayanakere) — are engulfed in darkness every day after 6.30 pm.

Lakshmipuram Police officers have written five to six letters to the MCC Commissioner over several months, yet no action has been taken.

"We conduct regular foot patrols and have noticed that most of these parks lack lighting, which is being exploited by anti-social elements for illicit activities. Monitoring these areas has become increasingly difficult," stated a Police Officer.

This problem extends beyond Lakshmipuram, affecting several parks throughout the city. "Evening walkers are particularly at risk due to these hazardous conditions. It's nearly impossible for the Police to prevent criminal activities when offenders can easily hide in the darkness," added another officer.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

FACING THE FUTURE WITH FAITH: Every morning, I wake up to words of WhatsApp wisdom. I receive moralistic messages instructing me on how to get through life and respond with similar sagacious advice. The trouble is that these profound precepts are easier to forward than follow.

Among other things, we are told that whatever lies ahead, there is no cause for dread. 'Do not be afraid of tomorrow. God is already there,' proclaims a post, endorsing the belief in divine dominance that is central to my world-view.

The Bible, which has been my guide and guardian these past few decades, reassuringly declares: 'The Lord himself goes before you and will be with you. He will never leave you nor forsake you.' There is also the comforting, 'Cast your burden on the Lord, and He shall sustain you.' These are just two of the promises I hold close to my heart.

Now, one might assume, quite justifiably, that since I subscribe to these scriptural sayings, I bounce out of bed at dawn, eager to embark on the day's adventures. While agility might not be practical at my age, nothing stops me from greeting the sunrise with serenity. I must regretfully admit that I am frequently filled with a sense of apprehension rather than anticipation.

Recently, I had a problem with my knee and convinced myself that surgery was inevitable. I braced myself for the procedure and the ensuing weeks of immobility. I almost wept with relief when the orthopaedic said smilingly that I did not even require an x-ray, much less any form of invasive treatment. He was confident that oral medication and simple exercises would set me right. I could have saved myself several hours of anxiety if I had only been 'positive', as texts on WhatsApp repeatedly urge us to be.

Not that optimism always leads to opportune outcomes. Talking of hospital consultations, many brave and cheerful patients have been handed a bleak prognosis. Some would say that being grimly prepared for the worst is a sound strategy to steer through the stormy seas of human existence. The people I admire greatly, however, are those who confront impending trials with exemplary equanimity. Although momentarily overcome by doubt and dismay, they face the future with faith, not fear.

Man recites 14,000 digits to set world record

New Delhi: A man with an incredible memory recently set a new world record by reciting a whopping 14,000 digits of Euler's number in just 49 minutes.

V. Deepu has always had an uncanny memory when it came to numbers. He once set a national record by reciting 2,000 digits of the irrational number pi faster than anyone and claims to have committed 500 telephone numbers to memory. But when he heard about a world record for memorizing the most decimal places of Euler's number, he wanted to have his name featured in the Guinness Book of Records. He spent four months preparing for this epic attempt and took under an hour to blow the previous record of 10,122 digits right out of the water.

He memorized 250 digits per day from Monday to Thursday, using the remaining three days of the week consolidating all this new information in his memory. To ensure he was ready, he sometimes recorded himself reciting Euler's number decimals to catch any mistakes he made.

Surgeon makes minor daughter drill hole in skull

Graz: An Austrian neurosurgeon is currently under investigation for allegedly allowing her 13-year-old daughter to drill a hole in a patient's skull during a brain operation.

In January of this year, a man was flown to the University Hospital Graz, in the Austrian city of Graz, following a serious accident that left him with head trauma. The female neurosurgeon, allegedly allowed her minor daughter actually drill a hole into the unconscious patient's skull. Luckily, the operation was a success and the man was able to go back to normal life. No one knew about the young girl's active role in the procedure, but the cat was let out of the bag in July when an anonymous complaint was lodged with the public prosecutor's office in Graz about the minor's involvement.

VOICE OF THE READER

Who will audit the Auditors? MUDA audit is mystery!

Sir,

The Karnataka State Audit and Accounts Department (KSA&A Department) conducted an audit of MUDA on Aug. 23, 2024 and so promptly, within a week, detected misappropriation of Rs. 9,41,46,048, in the fiscal year 2022-23.

Indeed, KSA&A Department's official website logo bears the words in capital letters: "WITHOUT FEAR OR FAVOUR", although that may be taken with a fistful of salt, much like Karnataka State Government's "Government's Work is God's Work" engraved on granite above the entrance to Vidhana Soudha.

From the exposé in SOM, it appears that officials at various levels in MUDA, over many years, have displayed gross inefficiency, dereliction of duty, misuse of official power and authority and failure to administer public funds according to rules and procedures.

Scams concerning irregular plot allotment by MUDA are not new. There have been news reports over several years in this connection and complaints from individuals being allotted sites, which were already allotted to another person earlier, individuals who had been waiting for many years while later applicants were allotted plots, etc.

Thus, it appears that KSA&A Department may not have conducted periodic audit of MUDA, since Rs. 9.41 crore is unlikely to have been misappropriated in just one fiscal year, namely 2022-23.

However, if KSA&A Department staff had indeed carried out audit of MUDA for earlier fiscal years, they were not as meticulous in their work as the staff who carried out audit on Aug. 23, 2024. Or worse, the concerned MUDA staff had successfully "convinced" the audit staff that there were no irregularities.

Audit authorities are appointed to keep check on executive excesses and irregularities, so that public funds are put to correct use and to disincentivise corruption. But connivance between the oversight authorities (Auditors) with the executives who administer public funds, inevitably lead to well-orchestrated corruption.

The KSA&A Department's programme of auditing State Government bodies needs to be overseen at the highest levels of State governance and its Reports subjected to State Legislative oversight.

Notwithstanding, the current exposé leads one to wonder: "Who will audit the Auditors?"

Jumboo Savari: Authorities plan changes in route within Palace premises

Minor modifications to be made to provide a better view of howdah elephant for those seated in different galleries

Mysuru, Sept. 5 (MTY&BS)- If all goes according to the plan, those eager to watch Jumboo Savari at the premises of Mysore Palace may look for a special facility, to savour the moments of the annual cultural pageantry with ease.

The District Administration intends to make minor modifications in the route of Jumboo Savari within the Palace, where the caparisoned elephant Abhimanyu will be carrying the Golden Howdah, leading other elephants, making for a sight to behold.

Every year, the tourists and others who had purchased passes and tickets to watch the procession from the galleries within the Palace precincts, were complaining about not getting a better view. The main reason was the rush of people at the sight of howdah mounted on the elephant, thus blocking the view for those seated in different galleries.

After mounting the Golden Howdah, the main elephant accompanied by kumki elephants and Police personnel, was brought near the elevated podium, from where the dignitaries offer floral tributes. However, those seated in the galleries near Varaha Swamy, Gayatri Devi and Trineshwara temples, were deprived of the proper view of the howdah and other elephants.

To address the issue, the howdah elephant will arrive near the podium, through the route passing via Trineshwara Swamy temple, Gayatri Devi temple and Varaha Swamy temple, as per the changes planned by the authorities.

District Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa, along with Deputy Commissioner G. Lakshmikanth Reddy, City Police Commissioner Seema Latkar, Deputy Director of Palace Board T.S. Subramanya, inspected the Palace premises yesterday to make suitable arrangements.

Minister plays volleyball

Dr. Mahadevappa also joined Dasara mahouts and kavadis and their children, in playing volleyball at the Palace premises for sometime. He also enquired them about their well-being.

'Who will inaugurate Dasara-2024? CM to take a call'

Mysuru, Sept. 5 (SBD&BS)- District Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa said that the Chief Minister will decide on the dignitary who will be inaugurating Nada Habba Mysuru Dasara-2024.

Speaking to media persons, following a meeting of various Dasara Sub-Committees at Mysore Palace Board yesterday, he said, a total of 19 Sub-Committees have been formed and discussions have been held about their functioning and responsibilities. However, there is no decision yet on who will inaugurate Dasara and it is the prerogative of the CM to take a call, said Dr. Mahadevappa.

The instructions have been given to fix the errors if any, on the basis of experiences had during the previous years of Dasara and take steps for the betterment of the events, said the Minister.

He also reiterated that, Chief Minister has already announced the grant of Rs. 40 crore to celebrate Dasara in a grand manner.

'Freshness in Food Fest planned'

Mysuru, Sept. 5 (BS)- District Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa said, unlike previous years, it is being mulled over to bring in freshness in organising the forthcoming Dasara Food Fest. The fest will be organised in two venues — Scouts and Guides Grounds behind old Deputy Commissioner's Office and the Grounds near Lalitha Mahal Palace in Siddarthanagar.

The Minister said, there are complaints about the quality of food served at the Dasara Food Fest. Hundreds of stalls will be put up at the Food Fest every year, and there were complaints about lack of cleanliness and basic amenities at the venues. With the stalls built in a row, there will be complaints about dishing out quality food and also the quantity, especially during the rush of people, said Dr. Mahadevappa.

'Promote alternative crops to check ginger cultivation'

Mysuru, Sept. 5 (BLU&BS)- During the meeting, District Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa came out with a timely suggestion to Raitha Dasara Sub-Committee to create awareness among the farmers about growing alternative crops, with the farmers finding themselves in a fix after letting out their lands to ginger growers from Kerala.

The ginger cultivators from Kerala have been growing ginger crops in Karnataka. With the unabated cultivation of ginger without opting for crop rotation method, the fertility of the land will gradually worsen in the later years.

Following the dip in yield, the Kerala cultivators stop farming, leaving it to the fate of local farmers who will be in crisis with the land turning infertile. Hence, awareness must be created among farmers to cultivate alternative crops, advised Dr. Mahadevappa.

Smart card system on cards at Chamundi Hill Temple

Basic smart card to be priced at Rs. 12,000, premium at Rs. 1 lakh

Mysuru, Sept. 5 (BLU&BCT)- The Chamundeshwari Temple Development Authority is planning to introduce a new system at Chamundi Hill Temple to enable devotees to bypass the lengthy queues.

They can gain direct access to the darshan of Goddess Chamundeshwari, as well as perform puja and receive the laddu prasadam, facilitated through a tiered smart card system that will be made available to the devotees if they pay money.

The number of visitors to Chamundi Hill has surged recently, particularly following the implementation of the 'Shakti' scheme, which has led to persistent crowds of devotees and tourists.

Consequently, many devotees face long waits of several hours to have the darshan of the Goddess. On weekends, holidays and during festivals, the queues become even longer, further extending the wait time for darshan. Devotees travelling from distant locations are often overwhelmed by the length of the queues, with many returning disappointed due to the extended wait times. The elderly, in particular, find it challenging to stand in line for prolonged periods.

Despite the availability of a Rs. 100 special ticket, this line too remains long, contributing to significant inconvenience for those seeking darshan.

Four types of smart cards

Attempting to cash-in on the issue of long queues, the Chamundeshwari Temple Development Authority is set to introduce a smart card system. This new system will offer four types of smart cards, each with a different price point.

Regardless of the card type purchased, it will provide direct entry to the Temple only once per month. The basic smart card, priced at Rs. 12,000, will grant one direct entry (for one person) per month for an entire year. A single laddu will be provided as prasadam.

For those purchasing a Rs. 25,000 smart card, five people can have direct entry (once a month for all 12 months) and also includes two laddus. A Rs. 50,000 smart card grants direct entry for 10 people (once a month for all 12 months) and includes a special puja performed in their names.

In addition, they will get 10 laddus. A Rs. 1 lakh smart card provides direct entry for 10 people (once a month for all 12 months), includes a special puja in their names, and also comes with 10 laddus along with Panchamrita Prasadam.

Digital security technology

To prevent counterfeiting, digital security technology has been integrated into the smart cards. Scanning machines will be installed for verification.

Cardholders can scan their cards at these machines and use the authorisation certificate to gain direct entry to the Temple. This benefit is available only to those who purchase the smart cards.

Only for those who can afford

This facility is, however, designed primarily for those who can afford it, as only individuals with the higher-tier smart cards will benefit from the direct entry and additional privileges. Those purchasing these premium cards will enjoy expedited access to Temple, bypassing long queues and receiving exclusive prasadam and puja services.

The introduction of smart cards is expected to generate additional revenue for the Chamundeshwari Temple Development Authority, which officials intend to use for other development projects and to enhance services for devotees.

Since the Authority's establishment, various improvements have been planned, though their effectiveness will be determined only in the future. While the plan for issuing smart cards has been developed, it is yet to receive formal approval in Authority's meetings.

A final decision on the initiative will be made in the forthcoming meeting, M.J. Roopa, Member-Secretary, Chamundeshwari Temple Development Authority told Star of Mysore.

Night-time free meals atop Hill Temple

Starting tonight, prasadam will be offered between 7.30 pm and 9.30 pm

Mysuru, Sept. 5 (MTY & BCT)- In response to the growing number of devotees visiting Sri Chamundeshwari Temple atop Chamundi Hill, one of South India's most revered pilgrimage sites, Chamundeshwari Temple Development Authority has announced a new initiative to provide free meals during the night.

This much-needed service will begin on Sept. 5 (tonight), offering relief to late-night visitors who often miss out on food due to the unavailability of prasadam after evening hours.

Chamundi Hill, famous for its religious significance and the Temple dedicated to Goddess Chamundeshwari, has seen a sharp increase in visitors from across the State and beyond. Devotees from all corners of the region visit the Hill Shrine seeking blessings, with peak days being Tuesdays, Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays.

A steady influx of devotees has highlighted the need for additional services, especially during night hours, as many visitors arriving late often find no access to food. This issue has now been addressed with the introduction of the night-time Dasoha, ensuring that no devotee leaves the Temple without having the prasadam.

Morning, afternoon and night meals are provided daily to the devotees at M.M. Hills in Chamarajanagar, facilitated by the Male Mahadeshwara Temple Development Authority.

Now Chamundeshwari Temple Development Authority too is following this system. The decision was made at the first meeting of Authority last Tuesday, chaired by CM Siddaramaiah.

Expansion of 'Dasoha'

Currently, the Temple offers breakfast from 7 am to 10.30 am and lunch from 1 pm to 3.30 pm. However, in light of the overwhelming demand, the Temple authorities have decided to extend the Dasoha service to the night as well. Starting Sept. 5, devotees will now be served free meals between 7.30 pm and 9.30 pm, with the provision to extend the service till 10 pm if necessary. This initiative aims to ensure that all devotees, regardless of their arrival time, can receive the prasadam.

Dasoha Bhavan

The concept of providing free meals at Chamundi Hill is not new. The construction of Dasoha Bhavan was initiated in 1998-99 in response to repeated requests from devotees.

By 2003-04, the Bhavan was inaugurated and lunch services commenced. In the years following, breakfast services were also introduced to meet the needs of morning visitors. This extension of night-time services marks a significant step in improving the overall experience for devotees.

Meeting devotee needs

Chamundi Hill attracts thousands of devotees on certain auspicious days, while attendance tends to decrease on others. Based on this pattern, Authority has strategically planned the night-time meal distribution to cater to the fluctuating crowd sizes. Initially, the service will accommodate a limited number of devotees until word spreads about this new provision.

Authority Member-Secretary M.J. Roopa told SOM that the introduction of night-time Dasoha addresses the long-standing demand from devotees who visit Chamundi Hill late in the evening. "This initiative will ensure that everyone receives prasadam, enhancing their overall pilgrimage experience. With these facilities, Chamundi Hill reaffirms its status as a well-organised pilgrimage site, offering quality services that align with the spiritual and physical needs of its visitors," she added.

Marigowda

Marigowda, who had gone to Bengaluru, was returning to Mysuru on Sept. 3, when he complained of headache, following which he was admitted to a city hospital. The doctors, who examined him, said that his indisposition was due to fluctuation in Blood Pressure.

When contacted, Marigowda told Star of Mysore that doctors have advised him rest.

Teachers Day celebrated

Floral tributes offered to Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan

MLA K. Harishgowda offering floral tributes to the portrait of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan as part of Teachers Day celebrations at Kalamandira this morning as MLC C.N. Manjegowda, Deputy Commissioner G. Lakshmikanth Reddy, ZP CEO K.M. Gayathri and DDPI S.T. Javaregowda look on.

Mysuru, Sept.5 (BLU&DM)- Chamaraja MLA K. Harishgowda said that it is teachers who have made us educated and without the help of teachers, nothing can be achieved.

He was speaking at the District-level Teachers Day and Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan birth anniversary celebrations organised by the District Administration in association with ZP and the Department of School Education and Literacy (formerly Department of Public Instructions) at Kalamandira on Hunsur road here this morning.

Expressing happiness that schools and colleges in Chamaraja Constituency have got good academic results, Harishgowda said that the city's Maharanis college has recorded 300 more admissions this year, which is a testimony to the college's excellent academic performance. Bemoaning that many girl students are cutting down their academic pursuits for want of hostels in the city, he stressed on the need for ensuring that everyone should get the education of their choice.

Pointing out that the Government has sanctioned 13 student hostels, Harishgowda said that the new Maharani's Women's Commerce and Management College on Valmiki road and hostels have been constructed at a cost of Rs.171 crore. The entire country will rest if teachers go to sleep, he remarked, while underlining the role of teachers at all levels in shaping the future of the country.

"Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, a great teacher that he was and whose birth anniversary is being celebrated as Teachers Day, was a great scholar, Philosopher, Statesman and a Politician, who went on to become the second President of India from 1962-67. Everyone should follow his ideals to celebrate the day in a most meaningful manner," he said while reiterating the role of teachers in moulding the future of children and in building the country.

As many as 33 teachers from across Mysuru District were conferred with 'District- level Best Teacher Award' and several retired teachers were honoured.

MLCs A.H. Vishwanath and C.N. Manjegowda, Deputy Commissioner G. Lakshmikanth Reddy, ZP CEO K.M. Gayathri, DDPI S.T. Javaregowda, District Government employees Association President Govindaraju and others were present.

Earlier, District Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa launched a procession of teachers near the old DC office. The procession passed through Vinoba road before reaching Kalamandira, the venue of the stage programme.

The Minister and other dignitaries offered floral tributes to the portrait of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan on the occasion.

Missing lights at traffic signals, city parks

Chaos at traffic junctions

Without functioning traffic signals, chaotic scenes unfold daily at numerous city junctions where vehicles from multiple directions converge, resulting in minor accidents and disputes among drivers.

Despite the urgency, the City Police are yet to address the issue. For example, the traffic signal at Sayyaji Rao Road and Brahmashri Narayana Guru Road in Tilaknagar has been out of service for days, causing frequent accidents.

This junction, near a school for the blind and deaf and a special care facility, is particularly concerning as they cannot easily navigate the chaotic junction.

The Subhash Chandra Bose Circle (Old RMC Circle) is also struggling with non-functional signals. New traffic lights installed last December at Srikanteshwara Iyer Circle (RTO Office Circle) and Kautilya Circle on Krishnaraja Boulevard remain inactive.

Defunct signals at busy junctions

The signal at Ekalavya Circle, serving several educational institutions and key city offices, has also malfunctioned for days. Similarly, Siddappa Circle near Agrahara and Akashvani Circle (Tarasu Circle) on KRS Road have non-operational signals, compounding traffic issues.

At the junction of Temple Road and KRS Road in V.V. Mohalla, the dual signal system has been inoperative for over a month. The signal pole, now obscured by vegetation, worsens the traffic conditions. Despite the presence of the V.V. Puram Traffic Station and the Law and Order Station, no traffic Policeman is assigned to manage this critical and a busy area.

> "I will direct the MCC officials to review the letter from the Lakshmipuram Police concerning the non-functional lights in the parks. We will also assess similar issues in other parks within the MCC limits. Addressing criminal activities is the responsibility of the Police Department, and they must take decisive action against anti-social elements. However, it is not feasible for us to monitor all activities within the parks."
> —Ashaad-Ur-Rahman Shariff, MCC Commissioner

Traffic signals at Javagal Srinath Circle on JLB Road, the circle opposite MUDA, and at Vishwamanava Double Road and Bogadi Road are also malfunctioning.

Many signals have unreliable red, yellow, and green lights, causing erratic traffic control at intersections like K.R. Circle, Narayana Shastri Road, and Thathaiah Circle. The worsening signal issues highlight the urgent need for repair and effective traffic management.

Mission Hospital staff take out march for redressal of various issues

Mysuru, Sept. 5 (MTY&DM)- Seeking redressal of their grievances including payment of pending wages, the staff of the city's CSI Holdsworth Memorial Hospital (Mission Hospital) registered their protest by taking out a march in the city yesterday.

The staff who gathered in front of the Old Milk Dairy on Bannur Road, marched to the new DC office on Bannur Road in Siddarthanagar, where they staged a demonstration seeking immediate solution to their problems.

"There are more than 300 staff in the over Century old Mission Hospital in Mysuru and the workers have been getting their problems solved amicably under the leadership of AITUC for the past 46 years. But the Hospital Administrative Officer Vincent Paul, who was appointed 7 years ago, has driven the Hospital to a crisis which was never seen before.

The Hospital is on the downslide under the leadership of Paul. The staff have not been paid wages for months and are also deprived of statutory benefits and facilities", they alleged.

Maintaining that they are not paid wages since April, the protesters said that they launched the stir from July 15 after giving notice to the Hospital management as per Law. But the Hospital administration, instead of holding talks with the striking staff for resolving the issue, has been misleading the public by making false allegations against the workers, the protesters said.

The Hospital Management has not attended any of the meetings called by the Assistant Labour Commissioner for resolving the problems. As such, the DC should intervene and render justice to them, the protesters urged.

They also demanded the immediate release of pending wages and announcement of the wage revision within a stipulated time.

The Union Office-bearers Dayaprakash, C. Shankar, Wilson Prabhakar, Paul David, R. Siddaraju, R. Joseph Manuel and others were present.

Farmers stage protest demanding jobs for land losers

Mysuru, Sept. 5 (SBD&DM)- Accusing the District Industries Centre (DIC) and the KIADB of failing to provide jobs for children of land loser families, farmers of Kempisiddanahundi village coming under Varuna Assembly Constituency represented by Chief Minister Siddaramaiah, launched a day-night demonstration in front of the DIC office on K.R. Hospital-K.T. Street road here yesterday.

Raising slogans against KIADB officials and Industries, they demanded that Industries which acquired land from farmers provide jobs to children of land loser families.

Maintaining that the Industries had promised permanent jobs to children of farmers when they acquired land for setting up Industries in Kempisiddanahundi, the farmers said, the Deputy Commissioner had formed a district-level committee headed by the Joint Director of DIC. Though the KIADB officials had written letters to Industries to provide jobs, the Industries are apathetic in providing jobs to members of land loser families. They said that they were forced to launch the day-night stir as the DIC and KIADB authorities and Industries had failed to provide jobs to children of farmers.

Farmer leaders Bokkahalli Nanjundaswamy, H.M. Basavaraju, Umesh, Manju, Ravi, and Madhu, Hoovamma,Manjula, Shivamma, Nagamma and others were present.

K.G. Mathew, Principal, Excel Public School said "In celebration of this year's Teacher's Day, the staff of Excel Public School decided to commemorate the occasion in a unique and meaningful way. We believe that fostering a sense of care and compassion for our fellow humans is a fundamental value that must be instilled in the next generation. What better way to demonstrate this than by actively participating in a noble cause?"

'Most teachers today are not up to mark'

Mysuru, Sept. 5 (PM&DM)- Regretting that most of the teachers today are not up to the mark, Rani Chennamma University Vice-Chancellor (VC) Prof. C.M. Thyagaraju said that this is a matter of grave concern.

He was speaking after inaugurating UGC-NET and K-SET coaching camp organised by Competitive Exams Coaching Centre of KSOU at its Cauvery auditorium in here recently.

Lamenting that students are finding it difficult to get quality and competitive teachers, he wondered what would be the fate of students if teachers lack quality. Noting that though the youths are much educated, he said they are, however, finding it difficult to get jobs because of lack of required skills.

Calling upon students not to give up hope at any point of time, he asked them to make efforts to overcome the hurdles and challenges that come in their way.

Stressing on the need for students to understand that learning is relentless, he underlined the importance of students getting good and quality teachers.

Asserting that UGC-NET and K-SET passed students are more dedicated and committed to their profession, he lauded KSOU for organising coaching classes for UGC-NET, K-SET and other competitive exams.

KSOU Vice-Chancellor Prof. Sharanappa V. Halse said students should take deep interest in studies and learning. Pointing out that UGC-NET and K-SET qualified aspirants would one day become Professors, he said that students are indeed the children of teachers. As such, the students should show respect to their teachers, he added.

Central University of Karnataka, Kalaburagi Education Department Dean Prof. G.R. Angadi gave tips to the aspirants on facing the exams. Coaching Centre Dean Prof. Ramanatham Naidu, Special Officer to the VC Mahadev, Centre Co-ordinator Jainahalli Satyanarayanagowda, Siddesh Honnur and K.G. Ganesh Koppal were present.

WORD OF THE DAY

Ensconce

Pronunciation: in-SKAHNSS (Verb)
Meaning: Someone or something ensconced is firmly placed or hidden. Ensconce can be a synonym of shelter and conceal, or of establish and settle.
Origin: You might think of a sconce (the word that when combined with the prefix en- forms ensconce) as a type of candle-holder or lamp, but the word can also refer to a defensive fortification, usually one made of earth. Originally, then, a person who was ensconced was enclosed in or concealed by such a structure, out of harm's way. One of the earliest writers to apply the verb ensconce with the general sense of "hide" was William Shakespeare. In The Merry Wives of Windsor the character Falstaff, hoping to avoid detection when he is surprised during an amorous moment with Mrs. Ford, says "She shall not see me; I will ensconce me behind the arras."
Example: "Portraying the autocratic chancellor of an unnamed Central European country ... is Kate Winslet, whose increasingly delusional strongwoman is also a germaphobe ensconced in a luxury hotel that she's turned into her personal palace." — Andy Meek, BGR.com, 4 Mar. 2024.

THE ODD WORD

Voorpret

Pre-fun, the sense of enjoyment felt before a party or event takes place.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

A shot in the dark

Meaning: The phrase 'A shot in the dark' means a very general attempt; a wild guess. You can use 'A shot in the dark' to describe a situation that has a small chance of success.
Origin: People have been using term 'shot' in reference to 'attempt' since the mid-19th century; in Joseph Hewlett's 1841 comedy Peter Priggins, the College Scout, we read: "After waiting for a little while, Ninny made a shot, and went so near the mark." The origin of 'A shot in the dark' isn't specifically known; George Bernard Shaw was first to use it in print in the February, 1895 Saturday Review: "Never did man make a worse shot in the dark."
Example: "That was such a difficult question! How did you get it right?" Reply: "I just took a shot in the dark."

QUOTE BOX

We cannot change anything until we accept it. Condemnation does not liberate, it oppresses. —Carl Jung
